MARKET SUMMARY:

Global markets - particularly European fixed income markets - experienced a difficult November. The once again escalating Eurozone debt crisis hit the headlines again with core European countries' government bond spreads hitting new highs, Italian yields above 7% and even a German auction undersubscribed. This, combined with a widespread deleveraging of European banks caused cash bond markets to perform quite badly in November. Hungary's downgrade by Moody's and the subsequent selloff of local assets did not help the fund's performance either, although we decreased local exposure throughout the year and put on some hedges early November. The fund posted a monthly performance of -2,07% and an underperformance of 1,78%.
