MARKET SUMMARY:

Obama won the presidential elections, to which the American indices reacted with a moderate decline, while the leading indices of Europe and Asia went up. The re-elected president has announced that he is open to compromises in order to solve fiscal problems, but he insisted on the tax increase on the nation's wealthy. At the beginning of November, the Greek parliament approved the austerity package and the budget for 2013, which is the requirement of further IMF loans. Greece will probably receive another aid tranche next month. At the beginning of the month several leading indices dipped below the 200-day moving average, then we saw a sharp upward price correction in the second part of November.

The climate change related stocks showed mixed performance during the month. Water and agriculture related sectors performed well, while alternative energy performed weaker.
