MARKET SUMMARY:

The leading equity indices soared to multi-year highs in December and the American equity market underperformed due to the unsolved fiscal cliff, but on the last day of December an agreement was made in order to avoid it. In December global business conditions kept on improving and the Chinese macro data were better than the expectations as well, thanks to which the probability of hard landing fell further during last months. The euro zone is still weak and the Purchasing Manager Index was below expectations. The weakening of confidence in further stimulus might be indicated by the fact that gold and silver significantly lost price in December. Regarding climate change related stocks, the sector dealing with waste management and the alternative energy performed the best, while utility companies showed weaker performance.
