INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND:

The fund is intended to serve as a stable, moderately low-risk form of investment, and to offer investors higher returns than bank deposits over the medium term. The portfolio elements are selected in accordance with the above principles. To ensure liquidity, the fund primarily aims to hold bonds and discount treasury bills issued by the State Debt Management Centre on behalf of the State of Hungary, as well as bonds issued by the National Bank of Hungary. The fund has a low risk profile, but its portfolio may also contain forint-denominated debt securities issued by banks and corporations, which are expected to yield a higher return than government securities. The fund may also keep its liquid assets in bank deposits. Besides this, the fund may hold a limited proportion of foreign-currency instruments in its portfolio, but only subject to the full hedging of currency risk. Aegon Domestic Bond Fund must hold minimum 80% of its assets in HUF-denominated bonds issued by the members of European Economic Area.

MARKET SUMMARY:

The yield curve steepened further in October, 5-10y spread reached a new record high of 1.2%. Short yields were pushed down by the unconventional tools of the central bank while long yields rather followed global markets higher. Yields look slightly rich, particularly compared to regional peers but the favourable technical picture compensates for that as the low budget deficit, the completed financing plan and the gradually increasing interbank liquidity surplus are supportive. Short yields decreased by 10-20 bps while long yields edged higher by 10 bps.
