INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND:

The fund's aim is to earn capital gains by taking positions in a wide range of assets while keeping risk under pre-defined limits. The assets are selected based on fundamental and technical criteria from the widest range of industry and country exposures possible. Based on medium and long-term trends, the fund can buy or sell equities, bonds and other securities, and take various exposures using exchange (futures, options) and OTC derivatives (IRS and currency forwards). Naked shorts on securities are not allowed. The manager selects and builds positions based on fundamental and technical analysis in such a way, that the fund's return can exceed that of bank deposits over a medium-term horizon. Equally important focus is given to risk management which targets Level 5 risk bracket. The fund is not targeting any specific sectors, countries or asset classes, but most of its exposures will be taken on US and European exchanges, or markets regulated by the capital market authorities of the United States of America and the countries of the European Union. The fund's net corrected risk exposure may go up to 200 percent of the portfolio, in accordance with the Hungarian capital market acts and regulations. The fund can also run a net short exposure, also in accordance with the above mentioned regulatory limits.

MARKET SUMMARY:

After the slight increase in May, the main equity indices were stagnating in June. Although the technical analyst of JP Morgan expects the culmination in the stock markets during the summer with a correction in Autumn, Deutsche Bank does not project any recession in the next 12 months.

The ECB has reduced its inflation forecast mainly due to the decrease of the oil price. In the British parliamentary elections, the Conservative Party was unable to retain an absolute majority - as a result the Pound decreased sharply. In the second half of the month, the first negotiation and negotiation schedule for Brexit negotiations was launched. In line with expectations, in the second round of the French elections, Emmanuel Macron's party had an absolute majority. At the end of the month, European decision-makers have extended the sanctions against Russia for another 6 months until January 2018.

At the beginning of June, due to the news of rising Libyan production to three-year highs, oil short positions were opened, and by the middle of the month, oil prices decreased led by fears of over-supply; although the launch of the blockade against Qatar had a slight rebounding effect. After the disappointment at the OPEC meeting, oil only returned to level 45 only at the end of the month when it became apparent that the inventory increased by 118k instead of the expected decrease of 2.2 million barrels.

At the beginning of the month, the US long yield dropped to its 2017 low as a result of disappointment with Trump, weak inflation and strengthening yen; furthermore, in the second week of June, Nasdaq turned down. As it was expected, the FED increased the base rate by 25 bps.

In Asia, Japanese market was supported by excellent macro data, while the Chinese H-stocks decreased because of the arrest of Anbang's CEO. In accordance to the MSCI decision in June, the Chinese A-shares were included in MSCI Emerging Market Index, but Argentina was left out.

We kept Brazilian and Romanian long positions in Panorama out of which the latter had an adverse effect. In contrast, the Hungarian overweight had a positive impact as the BUX performed well. We maintain our developed market equity positions since the picture is still positive based on macro and earnings momentum. During the month, we participated in Waberer's IPO and opened developed market short and long Turkish (domestic currency) bond position.
