INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND:

The Fund's goal is to offer a stable and predictable yield at a low risk level for the investors. According to this the fund is only allowed to hold fixed income securities, which were primarily issued or guaranteed by Poland. To a limited extent it is allowed to buy bonds issued by the European Union (and its institutions), the European Central Bank, or the European Investment Bank, if the security is denominated in PLN and its credit rating is at least equal to Poland's rating. Securities issued or guaranteed by Poland can be held regardless of the credit rating up to 100% of the NAV. Maximum allowed duration of the fund is 0.5 year, while maximum weighted average maturity of the portfolio is 1 year. The Fund must limit investment in securities to those with a residual maturity until the legal redemption date of less than or equal to 2 years, provided that the time remaining until the next interest rate reset date is less than or equal to 397 days. To ensure liquidity the fund can also place bank deposits. All of the assets held by the fund are denominated in PLN.

MARKET SUMMARY:

During December the Monetary Policy Council left the base rate unchanged, as expected. However, the Council lowered the interest rate paid on mandatory reserves from 1,35% to 0,5% (which was the official deposit rate). There will be a fiscal impact: the profit of the NBP will be higher by appr. 350mln PLN and lower the banking sector's profit by the same amount. The Chairman was very dovish downplaying wage pressures, highlighting uncertainty regarding growth and the possibility of renewed deflationary tendencies worldwide and reiterated his call for unchanged rates throughout 2018. Until the base effect in inflation provide a lower headline number, we do not expect that this rhetoric will change.

Looking ahead inflation is set to fall on the back of before mentioned base effects in the next months, which could provide a support for the short end and belly (supported by the dovish central bank). In November high frequency macro data was strong, signalling a GDP growth by appr. 4,7-5% in Q4. The strong performance of the economy, tightening labor market, widening output gap will not provide a strong support for bonds in the long run, however relative fiscal performance was quite impressive in 2017.
